CAREER OBJECTIVES

I'm currently living and working in Hanoi. Having a deep passion for programming and web designing. I'm always looking for new challenge by learning or involve my self deeper in new technology (now i'm learning NextJS, SvelteJS). Furthermore working it isn't only about technology it also about making new partnership, make new friends and support teammat. I believe all success comes from a good mind. In addition, I'm constantly learning and prating my English to aid my work and expand my career prospects
